UNITED STATES NEGRO PROFILE

By Theodore R. Wilson

There is a false conception of the past Negro life in the United States existing especially among our youth who know little or nothing about the past. Negro history has been excluded from the text books used in the public schools. Negro youth completing his education especially in the North, cannot really understand what he is faced with, and why. In the articles presented during the next several issues, I shall endeavor to enlighten, and bring you up to date on much of the past you do not hear much about, if at all.

Following the Civil War, (which was fought merely to save the Union) the black man's right to vote brought sweeping changes especially throughout the Southland. Voting Negroes in Mississippi, Georgia, Louisiana, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, etc. went to the polls and sent candidates of their choice into office. Alabama sent 3 U.S. Congressmen, Florida 1, Georgia 1 U.S. Congressman, Louisiana sent 1 U.S. Congressman, Mississippi sent 1 to Congress and 2 to the U.S. Senate. North Carolina had 4 U.S. Congressmen and South Carolina had 8 in the Congress. Virginia had one in Congress. This all happened between 1868 and 1901. In the meantime Louisiana had 127 State Legislatures and Lieutenant Governor, while other states had Lieutenant Governors (black). The State of Louisiana is the only state ever to be governed by a black man. It was P.S. Pinchback, the Lieutenant Governor who succeeded the Governor of Louisiana when he was unseated. It was for a short period of time. He then ran for the U.S. Senate and won, but was not seated. However, the state of Louisiana had during the same period of time 38 State Senators and ninety State Representatives. The black population as of 1880 was only 6,580,793.

Thousands of Negroes had learned to read and write and some were truly educated, taking advantage of every opportunity. Many studied by lamplight and by fireside secretly. With Negro Representatives in office, appropriations were made and schools were opened for Negroes. During the war between the states (Civil War) 178,595 Negroes had been in service with seventy-five commissioned officers. President Lincoln's first call for Negro troops was only for 75,000.

By 1872, John R. Lynch was speaker of the House in Mississippi, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction was a black man in 1874. By 1886 there was 136 Industrial Schools and Colleges exclusively for the black man. Schools like Howard University in 1867, Fisk University, 1866, and others like Lincoln (of Pa.), Hampton Institute of Virginia, etc. Lawyers and Physicians, Preachers and those learning trades were coming out of school and going into business. By 1880, Richmond, Virginia area had 10 Physicians, 30 Ministers, 2 Photographers, 4 Savings Banks, 4 Restaurants, 16 Stenographers, 3 Dentists and 4 Newspapers and Shoemakers, etc. That year 17,138 attended higher schools of learning, and nearly 1,000,000 Negro youths were attending school. In the state of Florida a black man was Superintendent of Public Instruction by the name of Jonathan Gibbs in the early '70's. South Carolina had two black men as Speakers of the House, and one of them is said to have been considered the best educated man in that state. Francis Cardozo had been secretary of the state-treasury in S.C. also. Senator and State Representatives pranced over the floors of each southern state for years. In 1870, of the 1,032,475 Negro males of voting age, 862,243 were illiterates. In 1900, of the 2,060,302 Negro males of voting age, 976,610 were illiterates, a decrease to 47.4 in just 30 years.

Much credit should be given to such schools as Tuskegee Institute, Morhouse College, Hampton Institute, Fisk University, Atlanta University, Howard University and others organized following the war between the states.

The black men rising to high authority and serving in the United States Cabinet or their respective states were either Ministers or Lawyers with few exceptions. Booker T. Washington who was born in Virginia and reached Alabama, was sent to Tuskegee with a state appropriation of $20,000.00 to take charge of that small school. The job he did at Tuskegee brought him worldwide fame as an educator of a leading school of higher education for Negroes.

Senator Blanche K. Bruce was born in Virginia, March 3, 1841. He married Miss Josephine Wilson of Cleveland, Ohio in 1878. He was seated in the U.S. Senate in 1875. T.E. Miller was born in S. C., June 17, 1849-free. He studied law at Lincoln University, elected to U.S. Congress and seated in 1878. John Langston was born a slave in Virginia, studied and was professor of Law at Howard University. Sent to Haiti by President Hayes, he was elected and seated in Congress March, 1890. Joseph Rainey was born June 21, at Georgetown, S.C. Self-educated and seated in U.S. Congress in 1872. Robert B. Elliott was born in Boston, August 11, 1842. A printer as state Legislator, was adjutant General of S.C., seated in Congress March, 1871. Jefferson F. Long was born in Georgia, self-educated-merchant and tailor. Elected 1871 to represent the state of Georgia, Rev. Hiram R. Revells was born in Fayetteville, N.C. 9-1, 1822 and was educated by Methodist in Indiana. He later was state Senator in Mississippi and won a seat in the U.S. Senate in 1870. James T. Rapier was born at Florence, Ala., Nov. 11, 1837 of wealthy parents (free), attended Law School and passed the bar, but never practiced. He won a seat in U.S. Congress in 1872, died in Montgomery, Ala., May 31, 1883. Alonzo J. Ransier was born free at Charleston, S.C., Jan. 1, 1834, self-educated—won a seat in U.S. Congress in 1872. Rt. Rev. Richard H. Cain DD (Methodist) born in Virginia 1825 was editor. He won a seat in U.S. Congress in 1879, died Jan. 18, 1887. John R. Lynch, born in Concordia Parish, La., was a Lawyer. Elected to 43rd U.S. Congress from Mississippi in 1873. James E. O'Hara was born in 1844 in New York City, he studied Law at Harvard and went to North Carolina. Failed to win a seat in 1878, but succeeded in 1882 as U.S. Congressman from North Carolina. Henry P. Cheatham was born Dec. 27, 1857 at Henderson, N.C., a slave. Self-educated and finally was register of deeds. He won a seat in U.S. Congress 1889. Died Nov. 29, 1935. Josiah T. Walls was born Dec. 30, 1842 in Virginia, won a seat in U.S. Congress 1870—unseated Jan. 29, 1873. Benjamin S. Turner, born March 17, 1825 in N.C., was tax collector in Alabama (Dallas County) won a seat in U.S. Congress. George W. Murray, born in Sumter, S.C., Sept. 22, 1853 a slave. Later schooled at S.C. University. Won a seat in U.S. Congress 1829, died in Chicago 1926. George W. White, born a slave Dec. 12, 1852 at Rosedale, N.C. Studied Law finally at Howard University School of Law. Elected to fifty-fifth Congress 1897. He died in Philadelphia, Dec. 28, 1918. Mr. White was the last Congressman for a period of 28 years as the result of a Great Political Conspiracy effective in 1901 at the end of his term. This should be especially noted by all students.

Robert Smalls was born in S.C., April 5, 1839—was first State Senator in S.C., and in 1874 was elected to U.S. Congress, died in 1916 in S.C. Jeremiah Harelson was born in Georgia and elected to U.S. Congress in 1875. He later went to Colorado where in 1916 he is said to have met his death by wild animals.

Charles Nash was born May 23, 1844 in Louisiana. Teacher. Elected to the 44th Congress of the U.S. and died in New Orleans in 1913. Robert D. DeLarge was born in Aiken, S.C., March 15, 1842. Self-educated and was a member of State Legislature, later Land Commissioner, elected to U.S. Congress 1872.

It is interesting to note—some of those who went to the Congress had been able to do their own at home, never finished a grade school, never went to college. Many of them studied by lamp-light, others by fireside at leisure hours. The white man did not send these men to their respective posts. They were sent by the Negro who used his ballot with a solid front. In a future article, I plan to reveal the facts concerning the effects of the great political conspiracy. There are many other posts of duty not mentioned in this article which will be mentioned in another.

No record is available for Negro inventions. The records of the Patent Office does not seem to show what was done by what race, however, we do know many of the inventions by Negroes. The Negro in Art and Literature, Medicine, Trade War, and in other capacity as citizens of the United States will no doubt be mentioned later. Strange as it may seem today that Negroes have only 26 of the Banking Institutions in the U.S. out of a list of 13,000. We are not as far along as we were in reconstruction days. We had a total of 36 at that time. We have only one National Bank manned entirely by Negroes at Houston, Texas. Out of 253,114 Attorneys in the United States, it is surprising to note that only 5,000 or less are known to be Negroes. We had almost that many 80 years ago.

In 1900 we had a population of 8,840,789 Negroes in the United States. An increase in 20 years of 2,259,996. In religion there were only two groups, Methodist and Baptist exercising commanding influence. There were 23,462 churches with a total seating capacity of 6,800,000. Few Negroes were outside the church. At that time they owned property valued at one-half million sterling (or $26,626,448). However it should not be forgotten that there were Negro Methodist churches as far back as 1787. However the African Methodist Episcopal Church was formed in Philadelphia in 1816 when a group of Negroes marched into St. George's Methodist Episcopal Church and took seats in the wrong pews, or section as the church went to prayer. The ushers then demanded them to move, and while some stated they would after prayer, some had no comment. The ushers actually pulled them up to their feet during prayer. According to Richard Allen's records, there was a mass exodus of Negroes from that church. They formed their own (AME) church which remains until this day.

The first Baptist church for Negroes was formed about 1775 at Silver Bluff, S.C., near Savannah under the leadership of Rev. George Leile and Rev. Andres Bryan. In future issues of this publication, what happened to cause so many divided factions into various movements may be known. The growing frustration among religious groups now in sharp decline of membership and leadership. Bishop Meade (White) of Virginia said in his address to slaves in his church, "Almighty God hath been pleased to make you slaves here, and to give you nothing but labor and poverty in this world which you are obliged to submit to, as it is his will that it should be so." His message was resented, and Negroes began to look ahead for themselves. In many places of worship, such was the message directed to blacks who had no place for worship.

STRANGE FACTS CONCERNING AKRON

Blacks have been known to live in Akron since 1830. In 1861 there was a population of 24 living here, and eight of that 24 enlisted in the union army, during the conflict (civil war) between the states. They joined the 178,595 blacks who served during that war with the union army. In 1864 while the total population of Akron was only 5000, the blacks had increased to 196. Today the blacks number upward of 50,000 but is said to be nearly 70,000 in metropolitan Akron. The exodus of whites to the suburbs have reduced the population of Akron now slightly below 300,000. But the black man is also entering the suburbs as fast as possible.

Blacks have about 100 churches in all, and less than 200 preachers. Most of these are found listed in this edition of the Directory.

There are three Dentists, and eleven physicians and two Funeral Homes. Six Attorneys, two councilmen (one president of the council). One Judge in Municipal Court. Akron does not have a Negro Bank or Loan concern, and no full time printer. There are 14 black policemen, and 14 Deputy Sheriffs over the entire Summit County. Akron is without a commendable Hotel or Motel, or even a commendable restaurant owned and operated by blacks. While in 1967 there was 13,354 black children in the public schools, and at that time we had only 168 black teachers active in the total schools. It is now said to be slightly higher of students now attending the schools, and few more black teachers. The publishers have not received a report from the House Education and Welfare in Washington for nearly two years.

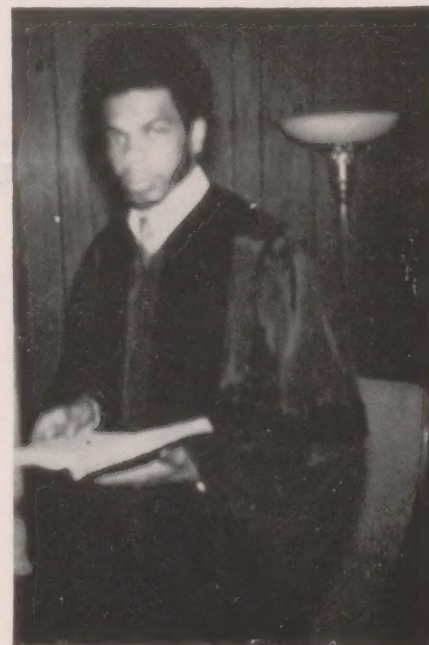

World War #I made it necessary for more labor to be brought to Akron. The supply came mostly from West Virginia, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, and of course a few from other areas. Blacks who were heirs of oppression and who were unsuccessful farmers, and many shiftless drifters from urban centers answered the call with few exceptions. Most of the self supporting, professional and business minded blacks remained in the south.

While this may account for some backward business activity among blacks here in Akron, much of their business failure may be their own fault because of a lack of race patronage and pride. Southern oppressors made it necessary for blacks to stick together, and have something of their own. The so-called integration efforts have made it extremely difficult for blacks to put forth much effort to go for themselves. Race patronage and pride is scarce among them, everywhere but churches, which remains today, THE MOST SEGREGATED SEGMENT OF OUR SOCIETY.

It is hoped that special efforts will be put forth to stem the tide of failing youth. School drop-outs, and illegitimate births. It will take much effort on the part of social agencies, churches, and concerned parents to make the change. Until we learn to value education, and money and race patronage and pride, I doubt that there will be much change in social and business life among blacks in Akron.

On any list the customer may choose names from a minimum of three states. That is to say - on a list of 1000 names and more, we reserve the right to select your names from any three states unless you make the request. It is possible, of course, for us to give full coverage of any state in the union.

When you wish to reach ministers, you can make no mistake by mailing direct to the church address. There is a small extra charge for the added line if you wish — ATT. PASTOR. Or Pres. Women's Missionary, etc.

When you think of LISTS, think of us. We cover the country like the dew.

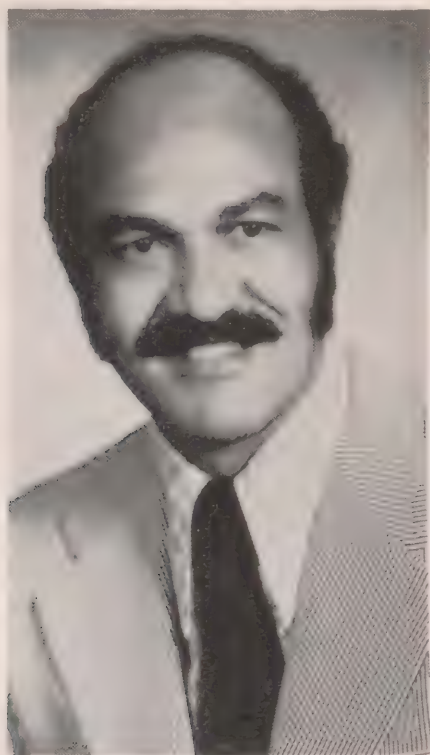

Classifications listed below are guaranteed 95% correct only. They are residential lists of course, and we have no control over deaths and removals, etc. NO ONE ELSE HAS. However, we will replace any name returned to us as the result of our label by U.S.P. We will either replace the name with a good one or refund you with 6¢ in cash for each undelivered envelope within 45 days. The cost of these classifications are the same as above—$30.00 per 1000. UNITED NEIGHBORHOOD COUNCIL INC.

Delegate Agency of the Akron Community
Action Council

39 East Market St., Akron, Ohio 44308

Economic Development Concept

Studies have revealed that the poor can only become part of the great American Industrial economy by providing opportunities whereby they can become promoters and controllers of some of the commodities they produce and consume.

For the poor neighborhoods to be developed economically money must not be allowed to flow out of them; it must remain to provide the tools for continuous on-going economic and community development and involve maximum participation of area residents. To qualify the unfortunate residents (disadvantaged youth, hard-core unemployed, ADC mothers, and welfare recipients) to fully participate in management and ownership of economic development enterprises, they need to have adequate education and requisite skills needed to secure and hold decent jobs.

In an effort to help the poor free themselves from their present predicament, the United Neighborhood Council, a delegate agency of Summit County-Greater Akron Community Action Council, has been authorized to embark upon the implementation of an economic development operation for seven target areas in Summit County.

The purpose of this Economic Development Program is to cooperatively involve the poor in business and productive self-help efforts which will reduce their economic plight by providing opportunities for job-development and on-the-job training.

The staff of the Economic Development Program, with technical aid from Commercial, Industrial, and Educational Institutions, originates business and commercial ideas, investigates and makes project recommendations and maintains community and public relations. From neighborhood centers and other agencies, such as Community Action Program, Housing & Urban Development, and by talking and meeting with residents in the target areas, the UNCI staff is able to get a true response to the needs and ideas of the residents.

It is a requisite that all recommendations and decisions are based on the information obtained from the residents.

The ultimate goal of the Economic Development Program is to help the poor and disadvantaged to assume a meaningful role in the industrial society of this great country of ours. The "Marshall Plan", conceived and implemented by U.S.A. in ruined Europe shortly after the World War II has worked; there is no conceivable reason why we cannot see this happen in our country.

RELIGIOUS PUBLICATIONS

Especially ministers should find this list of Religious Publications invaluable to their work in the ministry. These are available to you. When you make a request for a sample copy, please remind your correspondent you saw their name listed in this DIRECTORY. Then be kind enough to send at least the postage for mailing the copy to you unless you are a prospective advertiser or subscriber. This list is compiled by Theodore R. Wilson at Akron, Ohio, especially for the benefit of the subscribers of this DIRECTORY only. We have several hundred more such names not included in this list which may be had by special arrangement with the publishers of this medium. Address all correspondence to—The Christian Home, Box 9071, East Akron, O. 44305.

NEGRO COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

This list of Colleges and Universities for negroes below has been compiled from several sources through the years. I have had the opportunity to visit many of them in all parts of the country. I have been in direct contact with all of them in their use as a list, and referrals. I have been unable to know when all of these schools were organized. However many of them are marked when they were organized, and by what group—mostly by some religious denomination. Possibly more than 95% of such schools are southern. (s) means State supported—otherwise stated.

Don't Hurry

The habit of hurry wears out more bodies and kills more people than is realized.

So when, in the morning, be you man or woman, you look at what is to be done and begin to feel yourself hurried by the household cares, the writing, the shopping, the people to be seen, the many things to be done, sit right down for thirty seconds, and say, "I will not be mobbed and in mind driven by these duties. I will now proceed to do one thing—one thing only—and let the rest take care of themselves until it is done."

The chances are then that the one thing will be done well. If that is done well, so will all the rest.

When Day Is Done

I am sitting at a window that faces the west. The sun has just disappeared behind the tall hills, and the flaming colors are beginning to fade to pale blue. The silent trees are darkly outlined against the clear sky, and the crickets are chanting their drowsy evening song from the grass. A gray squirrel nimbly leaps from limb to limb in the trees, while a late bird wheels away toward the south on swift wings.

There is something fascinating about sunsets. Each one is different; each one is beautiful; each makes a magnificent climax to the bustle and activity of the day. Soon after the gorgeous colors fade into twilight, the whole world sinks to rest. Friendly lights are turned on in rambling old homes beside country lanes and in palatial residences above city streets. Birds seek their nests, children are tucked away in their soft beds for the night, and the little wild things of the forest curl up in their secret places of rest.

If we fill our days with rich living, we will have many precious sunsets, and if we have the right attitude toward life, we will always be surrounded by friends who will save us from loneliness.

SENTENCE SERMONS

Just praise is a debt, and must be paid.

Men do not stumble over mountains, but over molehills.—Confucius

Very few do their best. That is why there is always so much room for improvement.

Making an issue of little things is one of the surest ways to spoil happiness.

The highest reward for a man's toil is not what he gets for it, but what he becomes by it.

People swear because they know their words are useless.

Whatever you may choose to give away, always be sure to keep your temper.

The big things in life are never done by fussy people; poise is one of the earmarks of mental strength.

There's nothing wrong with humanity (that's you, me, and the other fellow) that a little cooling-off period for reverence, meditation, and relaxation can't cure.

A great deal of talent is lost in this world for the want of courage.

A big man is not one who makes no mistakes, but one who is bigger than any mistake he makes.

Success is the ability to get along with some people, and ahead of others.

If you encounter no difficulties, the office boy could take your place.

The values of life consist in our ability to suffer and forgive.

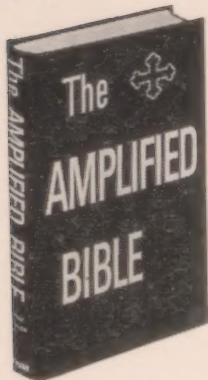

Life is like a game of tennis - the player who doesn't serve well usually loses in the end.

It is better to say, "This one thing I do," than to say, "These forty things I dabble in."

You intend to make good somewhere. Why not make good where you are?

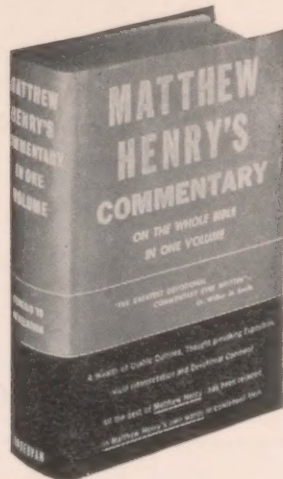

By accepting good advice, you are increasing your own ability.

Self-confidence exemplifies moral courage; egotism is a cloak for moral cowardice.
